

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FOR DECEMBER, 2022 Margaret Wright

1. This will be my last message. I have stepped down and Julie Russell will take over the president's position of the Oliver Senior Center. I wish to thank all of you for your support over this past year and a half. I hope you will afford Julie the same. It is important to have people volunteering to help out. Once again, many thanks and I will see you around here.
2. We have several activities on the board that we are trying to get interest in and get started. These activities include: DOMINOES, POOL LESSONS, CRIB IN EVENING, WHIST, CARPET BOWLING AND ALMOST ANYTHING YOU MIGHT LIKE TO PROPOSE. Sign up and we will try to get it going. Floor curling has started and is enjoyed by the participants.
3. We are welcoming some new people on the desk and would always like more involvement as things happen = people get ill etc.
4. Christmas dinner and dance will take place on Sunday, December 11 with bar open at 430 and supper at 530. Tickets are $25. We have a sign-up sheet looking for help to get the dinner going and running smoothly. All are welcome.
5. The afternoon jam on Wednesday is open to all. We are still trying to get more participants to play as well as dance and listen. Cost $2 for member and $3 for non-members. It is a nice relaxing afternoon. Please come.
6. The Saturday morning dance is still slow to get going. We have some regular supporters and we do appreciate you very much. Cost is $3 for each person. Please come and try us out. There will be a New Years dance on Sat. Dec. 30 with noise makers, snacks, sandwiches as well as the dance. The band is very appreciative of you coming. Cost will be $5.
7. Bingo on December 9 will be for the food bank. Bring an item of food per person or give a donation of cash and you will receive a 3-up free from us. It is a good thing for the food bank especially this year. See you then.
8. Unfortunately, you will see some increase in the prices at the concession. All the things we sell have increased at least .10 to .15 cents so we will be increasing bars to $1.25 as they are .89 now at the store. Watch for prices. Hot dogs will probably remain the same for now. Coffee may increase but we will keep you advised. Bingo will take place on Dec. 23 and 30.
9. Activities close from Dec. 24 to Dec. 30 for cleaning. Watch notices.
